State Legislature Honors All Pro Builders, Inc.

Sacramento, CA, June 11th, 2012— All Pro Builders, Inc., a family-owned and operated remodeler in Fullerton, CA, attended the California Small Business Association's (CSBA) “Salute to Small Business” banquet in Sacramento. The event was an opportunity for state lawmakers, including Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsom, to honor the small businesses that drive our state's economy, providing employment and service in their local communities.

All Pro Builders, Inc. was chosen by Assemblyman Chris Norby, the representative for the 72nd Assembly District, which includes Fullerton, Brea, Anaheim, and other parts of North Orange County. When presenting the award to Paul Paniagua, founder and president of All Pro Builders, Inc., Assemblyman Norby specifically highlighted the company's continuing commitment to charitable organizations in these tough economic times, as well as the hands-on customer service that a residential remodeler engages in every day.
